

New Editors Named for Historia Mathematica

After considerable deliberation over the past year, the Executive Committee of the International Commission on the History of Mathematics takes pleasure in naming Eberhard Knobloch of the Technische Universität (Berlin) as the new Editor of Historia Mathematica, and Helena Pycior of the University of Wisconsin (Milwaukee) as the new Managing Editor. Their responsibilities as editors officially begin on January 1, 1986 (each for a term of four years). Both Eberhard Knobloch and Helena Pycior are well known to readers of Historia Mathematica; they are accomplished scholars with international reputations, and the Executive Committee of the Commission wishes them every success in their new positions. Henceforth, all editorial correspondence concerning the journal should be directed either to the new Editor or Managing Editor at the following addresses:
